HISTORIC PLACE

SEVEN HISTORICAL BUILDINGS that previously were Banks,
Newspaper offices and International insurance companies.

True witnesses of the history of the city.

Above 1 : Customers of Banco Español de Crédito inside the new premises opened in 1922.

Above 2: Morning inside the operations hall of Banco Español de Crédito, circa 1950.

Right: original restored Safe deposit box from 1902, Fichet – Ground floor (19 tons)

Above: Stained glass skylight from 1940 originally located on the operations yard of Banco Zaragozano, executed by Maumejan House in Madrid. Today, it majestically shines at Galería Canalejas central atrium.

Above in B&W: Photograph of the Palacio de La Equitativa (1887) taken in 1912. The Joyería Sainz jewellers occupied the ground floor in the “bow” of the building.

Above in color: The same corner of the building now houses the first boutique at Galería Canalejas, Hermès (2020).
